PLANS FOR FOUNDERS' DAY EXERCISES ARE ANNOUNCED

Thursday, February 14, is Set Aside
For Observance of Annual
Academic Program

RUBY ROSS VALE TO SPEAK

Preparations have been completed for the observance of Founders' Day on Thursday, February 14. Classroom and laboratory work will be suspended at twelve o'clock and the rest of the day will be devoted to the celebration. The Winter Meeting of the Directors will be held in the Faculty Room beginning at 1.15. Everything will be set for starting the academic exercises promptly at 3.30. According to custom the men students will assemble in advance on the second floor, west side, of Bomberger Hall and proceed in the opening march by the side stairway to the main floor center aisle and occupy the seats on the left side of the auditorium. Similarly, the women students will proceed from the east side and occupy the right. The ranking class officers have been appointed as marshals for the men and women sections of each class respectively.

To the time-honored processional, "March On, O Soul, with Strength" led by the College choir, the procession made up of directors, faculty, candidates for degrees and speakers will come from the rear on the main floor and proceed by the center aisle to the platform. The speaker of the day will be Ruby Ross Vale, lawyer and counsellor of Philadelphia. There will follow the conferring of degrees and anthem and the recessional "Now Rest Ye Pilgrim Host" and the benediction.

After these formal exercises will come the informal celebration in the "Family Dinner." The College has grown much since this feature of the Day was introduced but arrangements have been made by which once more the whole Ursinus family, including directors and faculty members and

SENIOR BALL DATE SET*FOR FRIDAY, MARCH 15

Disciples of the Muse Terpsichore will have lots of opportunity to "do their stuff" at the Senior Ball, which, according to previous announcements, will be held on Friday, March 15. Tuneful melodies will be "put out" by Geo. Duddy and His Moulin Rouge Revelers. This outfit has had a remarkably successful record of concert and dance engagements, playing on Keith Vaudeville for nearly a year and a half, as well as in practically every well-known "palais de danse" in the eastern part of the United States. They are now on a dance tour, and it was because of this fact that the committee was fortunate enough to secure their services.

Something novel in decorations and novelties, as well as something very delicious in refreshments is promised by the committee. It is especially desired that tickets be purchased early, in order to avoid the last-minute congestion. The dance will be semi-formal, will last from 8.30 until 12.30, and the price of admission will be three dollars per couple. Tickets may be secured by writing to C. R. Snyder, and all checks should be made payable to the same.

DR. ISENBERG SPEAKS*IN REFORMED CHURCHES

In the observance of Education Day, Dr. Isenberg, Vice-President, gave addresses in the following Reformed churches: Trinity, Norristown, Christ, Bath and St. John's, Slatinton. These congregations have long been identified with Ursinus and in their membership are not only a good number of Ursinus graduates but hundreds of devoted and loyal friends.

RECEPTION TO REV. LENTZ

Rev. and Mrs. John Lentz were the guests of honor on Thursday night at a reception given by President and Mrs. Omwake in Superhouse. Those present included members of the faculty and their wives, administrative officers, members of the official staff and other invited guests. All departed at a late hour feeling deeply indebted to the host and hostess for an enjoyable evening of good fellowship.

GLEE CLUB TO JOURNEY TO SCHUYLKILL COUNTY

The Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Jeanette Douglas Hartenstine, will open its season with a series of concerts in Schuylkill County from February 15 to 19. The Club is presenting an almost entirely new program this year, having incorporated many new numbers into its repertoire.

The Glee Club will leave College on Friday afternoon, February 15, for Hazleton where a concert will be given. The next day a concert will be given in Mahanoy City where the Club will remain for two nights and sing on Sunday, February 17, in St. Paul's Reformed Church. Monday, February 18, the Club will sing in Tamaqua, and Tuesday evening in Frackville, returning that same evening to Ursinus. Several other concerts have been scheduled during March and April, and the Club is looking forward to a very successful season.

Freshmen Lead Lansdale Business
School Team Through Game
But Fail in End

KEYSTONE PLAYS BRILLIANTLY*The Lansdale Game

The Freshmen basketball quintet dropped a close game when they lost to the Lansdale Business School team, 38 to 33, Wednesday evening, February 6, on the latter's floor. The Ursinus basketeers were in the lead during most of the game, only to be passed in the closing minutes of play.

By starting right off with a few baskets, the yearlings grabbed an early lead. Their passing and shooting game was functioning, and they maintained a steady pace to the end of the period. As a result the half-way mark found them ahead 22 to 13 with all signs of bagging the contest.

The second half started much the same as the first had ended. This did not last long, for Leach, a Lansdale forward, who up to this time had remained practically idle as far as scoring was concerned, began hitting the net with alarming regularity. Spurred on by this the home team as a whole began to work better and

JUDGE KNIGHT, NORRISTOWN, ADDRESSES THE Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Harold G. Knight, Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Montgomery County, addressed the members of the Y. M. C. A. in a pre-exam meeting which was held on January 23 in the lobby of Freeland Dining Hall.

Mr. Knight chose as his subject, "The Hippodrome Age of American Civilization." In his address he showed many contrasts between America of today and the Roman civilization between 1 and 300 A. D. He said the contrasts in the civilizations between the ancient and the modern was due to a "loss of a sense of values."

Mr. Knight's address was enjoyed very much by the Y. M. and the invitation is always extended to him to speak again.

MEN'S DEBATE TONIGHT

The men's debating season will officially open tonight when the Ursinus negative team will oppose the men debaters from Wagner College, Staten Island, New York, in Bomberger Hall.

The Ursinus debaters will uphold the present jury system in the question, "Resolved that the American Jury System be Abolished." The personnel of the Ursinus team is: George Rosen, Austin Gavin, and Robert Roth with Calvin Yost acting as alternate. The discussion is slated to get under way at eight o'clock.

PROF. TYSON WILL LECTURE

Professor George R. Tyson has received advice from the Director of the Summer Session at the University of Pennsylvania of his appointment as Visiting Lecturer in Education, during the summer of 1929. The Weekly felicitates Professor Tyson on this appointment.

BEARS WILL MEET F. & M.
AND TEMPLE THIS WEEK

Ursinus Has Dropped Games to Both
Rivals in Former Games
This Season

NEWCOMER AND YOUNG LOST

During the present week the Ursinus basketball team will play two games, one on Wednesday night with Temple University and the other on Saturday night with the traditional rival, Franklin and Marshall. Both games will be played on the local floor and will be the second meeting with each team this season. Earlier in the season the Bears lost a spirited contest at Temple 46 to 32 and just last week lost a contest at F. and M., by a score of 38 to 25. Although these previous engagements resulted in defeats for Ursinus, the team is confident that it can turn the tables this week. In the previous Franklin and Marshall game the Bears showed the effects of their strenuous contest with Bucknell on the preceding night and did not appear at their best.

The Freshman team will also go into action twice this week. On Wednesday night the yearlings will play the Temple Frosh in the preliminary game and on Saturday night they will take on the Muhlenberg first year men. The game with Temple Frosh will be the second contest between the two teams, the first being a close game at Temple which the "Little Bears" lost

GETTYSBURG HANDS OUT*THIRD SETBACK TO BEARS

The Bears continued on the downward track by dropping the third contest of the week to Gettysburg. The final score was 45-29. The scene of the slaughter was the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium; the time, Friday night, February 8.

Ursinus started off well. Within a few minutes the Grizzlies piled up and held an eight-point lead, and completely outplayed their opponents at every stage. Gettysburg tried hard, but half-time found the Bears four points ahead in a 15-11 score.

The second half was the first turned upside down. Gettysburg unleashed a fast and furious attack which dazzled the spectators and bewildered the Bears. Thirty-four points were scored by the battlefield boys in this period alone. Two faults of the Ursinus team which have been present all season were particularly evident—failure to follow up shots under the basket and the failure of the five-man defense to take sufficient care of two or three of the opposition who are circling under the net. Thirteen foul tries were awarded to Gettysburg, some of which were deserved.

Haller was high scorer with seven

SOPHS ELECT OFFICERS FOR SECOND SEMESTER

At a meeting of the sophomores held on Thursday evening of last week, the class reorganized for the second semester of the present year. After a series of close and spirited elections, the following were victorious: President, Warren Hess; Vice-president, Grace Kendig; Secretary, Rhea Sell; Treasurer, George Rosen; Attorney, Edwin Krall; Chaplain, Roy Smith and Photographer, Oscar Trauger.

An auditing committee was appointed at the same meeting with instructions to examine the records and financial standing of the class and to render a report of its findings at the next meeting.

DRAMATIC CLUB SELECTS*ZWING ANNIVERSARY PLAY

The Dramatic Club of the College will present, as the "Zwing" Anniversary Play, before the Easter vacation, a mystery drama which has had long engagements in New York and other metropolitan theatrical centers. "The Cat and the Canary," which has been selected by a committee headed by Paul Mattis '30, is the offering, and something new is promised in the way of Ursinus drama. The Dramatic Club will begin work on the play immediately. The definite date will be announced later.

URSINUS WOMEN'S CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT, THURS.

The Ursinus Women's Club will present its annual concert on the evening of Founders Day, February 14. The concert will be given by the Shillington Male Chorus under the direction of J. Herman Miller. This chorus comes to Ursinus with a fine reputation, and an evening of good music is assured.

The chorus will be assisted by Miss Verna Kurtz '23 who will give whistling, saw, and reading selections. While in college Miss Kurtz was noted for her ability as an entertainer, and since graduation she has continued to devote her efforts to this work both on the concert and Chautauqua stages.

The proceeds of this concert will go to the treasury of the Women's Club, which is devoting its energies to developing girls' athletics at Ursinus and is working for the Women's Dormitory Fund.

GIRLS WIN THREE GAMES*TO OPEN COED SCHEDULE

Girls' Team Defeats Drexel, Albright, and Phila. Normal Showing
Scoring Strength

STRICKLER LEADS SCORING*The Drexel Game

The Ursinus girls opened the basketball season with a bang when they defeated the Drexel co-eds, 37-21, on Saturday, January 26. Ursinus got the jump at the start and kept the lead all through the game. The drag-onettes put up a brave fight and at the end of the first half Ursinus led by only three baskets with the score, 16-10.

The second half found the home team gaining continually and the game ended with the score 37-21 in their favor. For Ursinus, "Billy" Strickler made the largest individual score.

Phila. Normal Game

On Thursday afternoon, Feb. 7, the Ursinus basketball sextet played with the visiting team from Philadelphia Normal School by scoring 34 points to their opponents' 10. The game was closely fought during the first quarter, the Philadelphians being in the lead. However the Ursinus girls soon regained their characteristic speed and scored rapidly in the second half.

"Billy" Strickler, our Freshman forward, played an exceptionally fine game and the two Ursinus guards Olive Sargeant and "Lib" Heinly kept

BOXING AND WRESTLING*IS GIVEN RECOGNITION

Last year a class of embryo boxers and wrestlers met regularly in the gym. under the tutelage of Charlie Metcalf. This class was conducted without recognition or help from the Athletic Association.

In the last meeting of the Athletic Council, however, it was voted to recognize and subsidize this new sport at Ursinus. The result will be that the sport may be carried on under much improved conditions and it may be that in the future matches will be arranged.

DREXEL GAME POSTPONED

Because of the death of Mrs. Van Rensselaer the girls' basketball game with Drexel was cancelled but probably will be played at some time in March.

BUCKNELL TOPS BEARS IN CLOSE GAME TUESDAY

Ursinus Presses Bison in Second Half
But is Unable to Take the Lead

SEILER, BISON CENTER, STARS

Bear bowed to Bison as Bucknell eked out a 31-28 victory over Ursinus on the Thompson-Gay court Tuesday evening, Feb. 5. This made the second straight year that Grizzly claws failed to penetrate the thick hides of the Bisons.

The first half was marked by a fierce defensive struggle waged by the Bears against the deadly passing and accurate shooting of the opposition. Bucknell drew first blood on Seiler's successful foul try. A second foul and a pair of floor shots gave the laddies from Lewisburg a six-point lead until Pep Young broke the ice with a successful foul shot. Bucknell held the lead throughout the period, however, half-time totals being 19-13.

After a few minutes of just plain dribbling around, the Bears started one of their traditional second-half rallies. With Sterner and Schink on a scoring spree the Bison lead was cut to one point. Bucknell caged a foul shot, Sterner retaliated with a field goal. The score stood 23 all and the stands were in seven or eight kinds of uproar. From then on the game was a neck-and-neck affair (being a big night for the softies). The Grizzlies threatened continually, but were unable to swing into the lead. With one minute to go, Sterner's foul cut the Bison lead once more to one point, but Seiler's field goal put the fracas on ice for the visitors.

Seiler, giant center on John Plant's team, was the big shot of the evening offensively. Seventeen points were marked up to his credit, accounted for by eight field goals and one alimony award. Most of his scores were due to his ability to follow up the spheroid under the basket.

URSINUS PLAYS POORLY*AGAINST F. & M., FEB 6

Ursinus dropped the first of a two-game series to Franklin and Marshall by a 38-25 count in a game played on the Lancaster team's home court Wednesday, February 6. In registering this triumph, the Roses took revenge for the sound drubbing they received at the hands of the Ursinus courtmen last year. The Bears showed the effects of the strenuous struggle with Bucknell, playing very loosely at times.

Borger, sharp-shooting forward, led the Lancaster attack with four field-goals and an equal number of fouls. Assisting him were his fellow-snipers, Cole and Weiss, each netting eight points per. Schink was the Ursinus ace, caging three baskets and two foul shots for an eight-point total. Egge, with three fouls out of five tries, and one bucket, was right behind. Sherry Peters, who thus far had scored nary a point since the Muhlenberg mix-up, at last found the basket for two fouls and one fair.

The Bears are slated to gain their revenge on Saturday night, February

STRONGEST AND HARDIEST*MEN TO PLAY FAIRER SEX

The strongest and hardest members of the football team and a few other Ursinus athletes are soon to prove their prowess by a basketball game with the girls' varsity. The contest probably will be most amusing and exciting.

A small admission fee will be charged and the proceeds will be given to the Women's Dormitory Fund. The date of the game will be announced as soon as it is chosen.

THE INTER-DORM LEAGUE

Men from various dorms have been practicing regularly in the field cage in preparation for another basketball campaign to be played under the leadership of the inter-dorm league. This league will soon get under way and will afford exercise as well as amusement to a number of players, fans, and hero worshippers of the weaker sex.

THE EDUCATED MAN

At times, we are all prone to reflect on the meaning of the expression, "the educated man," an expression which we use with a tone of vagueness and perhaps for this very reason with an attitude of reverence, for we feel that the term covers a state of advancement to which few can make approach and none can claim attainment. An excellent discourse on "Education," written by Everett Dean Martin, and included in the book "Whither Mankind," edited by Charles A. Beard, presents numerous ideas on the contributions of education and the educated man to modern civilization. To this work we are considerably indebted for thoughts which are included here.

Technology has greatly supplanted the old classic tradition, the revival of which constituted the compelling motive in the growth of humanistic tendencies in the period of Renaissance. Up to the machine period of the Industrial Revolution the theoretical idea was dominant in the educational activities of man and a class system of education tended to introduce an intellectual and cultural luxury into the lives of those who could devote themselves to a delving in abstractions. But with the Industrial Revolution came a period of extreme practicality in which means and results were forever stressed in their relation to the educating of the modern world.

It seems that the educated man must be the leader in his little world of business, finance, mechanics, or in a narrow field of professionalism. Modern education has sought to provide the tools for so-called success in life—the means to the furthering of man's desire for advancement in a world of machines and science.

However, there is another task which education should perform if it is to be liberalizing—and we still delight in speaking of the liberal education. This second task "is that of leading men to reflect on the way they are going, to consider for themselves ends and values in the light of the experience and the serious thinking of all time." The educated man is he who breaks down narrow self-interests and prejudices to substitute for them "wider outlook and sympathies." Does this not constitute an interest which the liberal college attempts to bring into the life of the seeker of the higher education? Can we not by setting the example of the educated man before us attempt to advance the welfare and progress of the world?

"Men have always wrestled with forces of nature and have struggled with one another for position and power. But there have been leaders, not content that the struggle be intensified or carried on with sharper weapons, who have sought to humanize it, to view it in the light of larger experience and wider sympathies. Such as these have given to human life some meaning beyond the struggle for material ends; these are they who have changed the accidents of history and the conflicts of the hour into a somewhat continuous advance of civilization." These are educated men. H. H. A., '30.

AN ODE TO URSINUS COLLEGE

There's a classical spot in every clime,
A classical age, and a classical rhyme,
A classical deed, and a man sublime
Who lifts his fellow from thrall and grime.
There's classical America.

Here Washington and Franklin saw
Man's bleeding flesh in lion's paw.
In constitution, state, and law,
These greatest of the world foresaw
A classical America.

Ursinus, on this holy spot,
Has reared its tower, in chosen lot,
Where freeman dared, in freeman's wot,
To bare his sword to live, or not,
In classical America.

Thy gate stands where the patriot trod
With foot in blood, in snow, unshod.
Thy sapling made a musket-rod,
Thy Sacred Book, a musket wad—
For classical America.

From out thy watch-tower lifted high
O'er land upheld to reach the sky,—
Nor Greece, nor Rome, with this can vie—
Behold! Behold! Nor e'er deny
This classical America.

Oh, Valley Forge! Perkiomen Mill!
Norriton! Trappe! and Skippack Hill!—
The tyrant stopped at Phoenixville—
St. James, Perkiomen! All is still
In classical America.

Go forth, who treads this sacred place,
The future with the past embrace.
Include thyself with all thy race.
Raise high the Right, and purge the base
From classical America.

Forget, thou, not its classic lore.
Forget, thou, not its patriot's gore.
The help of Living God implore.
For, 'round about Ursinus' door
Is classical America.

J. HOWARD JOHNSON, '94, Barrington, N. J.

THE time has come around for the local alumni associations to hold their annual dinner meetings. Under the constitution adopted some years ago, these associations are constituent parts of the General Alumni Association, and it is definitely specified (Art. VII, Sec. 3) each constituent or local association shall hold at least one social and business meeting a year. The responsibility for holding such meetings is laid on the officers. Here then is a duty clearly and definitely set for those who have been honored with official position in the various local associations.

It will be especially fitting this year if each local association will include in its program some feature for the celebration of the Sixtieth Anniversary of the founding of the College. The historical paper recently prepared by our Vice President shows that in every locality represented by these associations, there were men and women who took a lively interest in the work of getting the institution started. The founders and those thus associated with them have all passed from the scene of action and their work has so far receded into the past that it now begins to stand out in true historical perspective.

It would be most appropriate if the descendants of these pioneers of Ursinus could be gotten together at these Sixtieth Anniversary meetings, to join in the celebration of the important and far-reaching work of their fathers. What the forefathers really wrought can be appreciated only in the light of the Ursinus of today. There are many indications in the acts and proceedings of the Founders that they envisioned in their day of small beginnings, much that has been brought about in the three score years of steady growth that have ensued.

A most interesting program can be built about the "then" and "now" of Ursinus College. G. L. O.

Y. M. C. A.

The weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held Wednesday evening, February 6, in the lobby of the dining room. It was purely a musical meeting and many of the most inspiring hymns were sung.

The devotional exercises were led by Harvey Lytle, President. He then explained the purpose of the meeting—to instill a more complete understanding of hymns in the hearts of the fellows. Doctor Isenberg, who was present as a visitor, introduced hymn No. 228 and explained the personality and life experiences of the author, George Matheson.

George Matheson, when a young man of twenty-two, became blind and his sweetheart after deciding that life would not be desirable with a blind husband, rejected him. Matheson then realized the shallowness of human love and depth of divine love and the hymn "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" was expressed in his mind. Doctor Isenberg added that a hymn is much more easily understood if the circumstances surrounding its writing are known.

An added contribution to the music of the meeting were solos by "King" Saalman. He sang three solos and especial mention should be made of "Pale Moon" and "Invictus."

Musical meetings are very much enjoyed by the fellows and there will be more later on. Besides the general enjoyment that it affords, a clearer concept of hymns and their real meanings results.

Y. W. C. A.

An inspiring Y. W. C. A. meeting, with "Worship" as its theme, was held in the Library Y room on Wednesday evening, February 6. Jane Kohler '29, the president of the Association, conducted the meeting and gave a very interesting talk in which she showed the various ways that we may find God. She said that to some people He manifests Himself in nature, to others in mother love, literature, painting or music. Kay Clarke '31 read a beautiful poem entitled "Silence" and Rhea Sell '31, accompanied on the piano by Ethel Strauss '31, sang "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." The last number on the program was Paderewski's "Melody in G flat" played by Margaret Stocker '29. The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn.

GIRLS OF HOCKEY TEAM

DINE AT SCHWENKSVILLE

The sixteen girls of this year's hockey team were given a banquet on Monday evening, January 21, at the Spring Mountain House. This was the first year that a banquet was held there for the hockey team, and consequently it was greatly enjoyed, especially since the menu was chicken and waffles. Besides, appropriate favors of chocolate bears and hockey placecards added to the spirit of the occasion. After the banquet Miss Helen Errett spoke, congratulating the team on their cooperation and good sportsmanship, while Dot Seitz, as this year's captain, and Evelyn Lake, as next year's captain, addressed some remarks to the team. Following these few after-dinner speeches the letters were awarded. Fifteen girls received U's for membership on the team: Dot Seitz, Olive Sargeant, Joe Riddell, Clara Riley, Jane Bowler, Betty Greager, Helen Wismer, Evelyn Lake, Virginia Kressler, Kitten Witman, Callie Tower, Jerry Ohl, Mickey Stenger, Ruth Wismer, and Pat Hutchinson. Seven Seniors, besides receiving their letters, were awarded pins in the form of gold hockey sticks. These were: Dot Seitz, Jane Bowler, Joe Riddell, Betty Greager, Helen Wismer, Olive Sargeant, Virginia Kressler. Viola Sweigart was presented with a service letter as a mark of appreciation for four years of good sportsmanship and regular attendance at practice. After spending some time in dancing and reminiscing on former hockey games and trips, the girls returned by bus to more routine matters at Collegeville.

WEBSTER FORENSIC CLUB

Last Tuesday the Webster-Forensic Club held an interesting meeting at which time reports were given by various members of the club on different aspects of the question to be debated by the local debating team this season. The question is, "Resolved: That the American Jury System Should be Abolished." Nelson Bortz was chairman of the meeting and presented several interesting illustrations which attacked the American Jury System. Under his leadership an open discussion followed and many new ideas were exchanged by the members.

The program which will be given by the Club this week calls for a debate on the question, Resolved, That Intercollegiate Athletics as They are now Conducted are Detrimental to the Colleges. The affirmative team will consist of Yost and Hess while the negative team will be composed of Scirica and Livingood. The regular speeches will be of ten minutes duration while the rebuttals will each be five minutes in length.

ORATORICAL UNION MEETING

A meeting of the Eastern Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Oratorical Union was held in Hunt hall at Bucknell on Saturday, January 19, 1929. There were five schools represented at the meeting: Bucknell, Gettysburg, F. & M., Muhlenberg, and Ursinus.

The greatest move which the Union took was a resolution to combine the Eastern and Western Unions into one state Union. This resolution was prompted by the evident lack of interest among the western schools. An active program of building up the organization in the number of members and in stimulating interest was adopted.

There was much amending of the constitution—one amendment providing for a faculty secretary-treasurer of the Union and making the position somewhat permanent. In this connection Dr. Brown, of Muhlenberg was elected to fill the office for the next two years. It was decided further that the president of the organization should be elected from the school holding the contest.

The date of this year's contest which is to be held at Bucknell, was set for the second Monday in March (March 11, 1929).

ANNUAL ATHLETIC BAZAAR

The annual Athletic Bazaar will be held on some Saturday during February. Arrangements are now being made for the event and detailed announcement will be made at an early date. The proceeds this year will go to help defray the expenses incurred in connection with the organization of the College Band and also to help make up the deficit on the furnishing of the Athletic Club. A general chairman will be appointed and various committees will be formed to make the affair a success.

MRS. LENTZ HONORED

BY GLENWOOD GIRLS

On Thursday afternoon, February 7, the girls of Glenwood Hall gave a tea for Mrs. John Lentz. Mrs. George L. Omwake and Dr. Elizabeth White were guests of the afternoon. In the absence of Miss Errett Mrs. Lattomus graciously acted as hostess and poured tea. Those who served were Miss Abbie Carter, Miss Harriet Littlefield and Miss Carolyn Evingham. During the afternoon several vocal solos were given by Miss Rhea Sell and Miss Helen Dealy, and Miss Mary Reider played two pleasing piano numbers, Russian Song, and Country Garden. Mrs. Lentz expressed her pleasure in meeting the college girls in small groups and extended a welcome to all in her home.

"THE PATSY" GOES ON TOUR

J., today, and on February 22 and 23 at the Victoria Theatre, Pottstown. A matinee and an evening performance will be given at Pennsgrove, and the same procedure will be followed on Saturday, February 23, at Pottstown. Only one show will be given the previous day.

Defensively the team showed at times, that they missed the presence of Captain Newcomer, who occupied a side line seat because of injuries received when struck by a hit-run motorist two weeks ago.

The girls have an excellent basketball team this year and the prospects of a successful season are exceedingly bright. The only thing lacking to a complete success is attendance. It is up to the student body to provide that, so support your team. Come and fill the galleries. They are waiting for you.

Albright Game

The "Collegeville Coeds" journeyed to Albright College Saturday, February 9, to play basketball with the "Myerstown Maidens," far famed for their prowess. The Ursinus girls proved by two points to be a slightly better team by winning 22-20.

The "Myerstown Maidens" strutted their stuff in a confident winning way but the "Collegeville Coeds" won thus showing that their fighting spirit was up. They treated the admiring audience of sheiks and shebas to an exhibition of teamwork that has yet to be beaten or even equalled.

Until the last quarter, it appeared that Ursinus would return home with their record no longer unspotted by defeat, but spurred on by the lusty cheering from the sidelines, we scored two buckets and led.

As the whistle blew ending the game, a hearty sigh went up from the spectators who had been kept in breathless suspense during the entire game. For not in one minute of play was there any lull in the speed.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COMMENT

A growing tendency on the part of the American undergraduate to sleep too little was noted by President Livingston Farrand in his address to the freshmen at the opening of the scholastic year at Cornell University. "The failure to get the proper amount of sleep is one of the growing evils of American undergraduates," he said. "Your efficiency, your competency, your health and your future can be wrecked without the proper amount of sleep."

36 to 33. The game with Muhlenberg will be the first between the two freshmen teams this year. Last season the Allentown team took the honors in an exciting contest played on the Ursinus floor.

After the Wednesday game, the Varsity team will be without the services of its star forward, "Pep" Young, who is ineligible because of scholastic difficulties. This blow coming on top of the loss of Captain Newcomer, who will probably be out of the line-up for the rest of the season due to injuries sustained in an accident before mid-years, will be a serious handicap to the team. The boys are not discouraged and will continue to exhibit the fight that has been displayed by them so far this season.

The Keystone Game

Up at Factoryville, on the other side of Scranton, there is a place called Keystone Academy. This seat of learning sent a basketball team to Ursinus to struggle with the Frosh quintet, in a preliminary to the Gettysburg game, Friday night, and what a team it was. When everything was settled the respective scores of Ursinus and the visitors were 20 and 43 points.

The Keystone aggregation showed most of their form and basket shooting ability in the early part of the game. They have a fine passing combination that does credit to any school.

Ursinus had difficulty in getting going, either defensively or on offense, and the half way mark found them trailing the visitors 30 to 6.

The second period was an entirely different story, for the yearlings shook off the spell that was binding them, and started to play real basketball. With greater accuracy in their passing they worked the ball down the floor, and scoring opportunities came, and were taken advantage of more frequently. Though the Frosh outscored their opponents in this period, the lead established in the beginning of the contest was too great to overcome.

The scoring honors of the Ursinus quintet went to Wolfel who garnered 8 points, while the leading scorer of the fray was Lacy, of Keystone, with a total of 16 points.
